

Attention all Iraq and Afghanistan Veterans...

build your pathway to success with the University of Arizona!

UA and the University Teaching Center are offering an academic success program for Iraq and Afghanistan veterans. The program consists of four college-credit courses that will help you convert your military training and experience into lifelong success skills. The program is an on-ramp for getting your college degree. You will learn how to succeed in school and develop proven skills for success in life.

The classes increase your resilience and ability to manage stress. You will improve your memory, strengthen your problem-solving skills, learn to succeed in academic settings, build a social network for support, and develop your leadership competencies.

Sign up now for the Fall 2008 Semester and build your pathway to success!
